

The Assistance for the Financial Health of Latino Businesses in Washington (ASFINLA) Project
Invites you to the free workshop

AN UPDATE ON TAXES FOR SMALL BUSINESSES

Taught in Spanish by an employee of the Department of Revenue (DOR)

At the WSU Extension office of Snohomish County,

600 128th St. SE, Everett (in the back of McCollum Park)

On November 7th, 2011 from 5:00 to 8:00pm

Must pre-register (limited seats)

This workshop is brought to you through a partnership among the Latino Community Studies and Outreach Program of Washington State University Extension, the WA Small Business Development Center and with the support of the WA Department of Revenue.

To register or for more information please contact José García at 425-357-6008 or GarciaJL@wsu.edu

Yards and gardening

Food

Wholesale and lodging

Stores – books, gifts, cards

Construction

Funded in part through a cooperative agreement with the US Small Business Administration

Working together to fund Washington's future

